"Your Pre-Dive Safety Stop"

Utila, Honduras

Jan 29 - Feb 5, 2011

Come dive with us in Utila and expect world class diving that the Honduras Bay Islands are famous for...with a twist! Utila's walls are lush with sponges, gorgonians, pillar corals, reverse ledges and caves. The "Great Wall", on Utila's east bank, is one of the most spectacular walls in the Caribbean. Utila and its southwest cays are located on the lip of Honduras' continental shelf...the ocean's breadbasket. Look for huge turtles, grouper, lobster, crab and tropicals as well as some of the most beautiful tunicates and delicate marine life in the sea.

Utila also famous for its whale shark encounters!
